Seeing red after blood clot 'nearly killed me'

Police hold probe into illegal rave

BY MALCOLM TATTERSALL

editor@mk-news.co.uk

A GRANDAD has told how he collapsed and almost died with a blood clot just a week after visiting his GP and being told he had arthritis in his leg.

Unemployed computer engineer Glenn Wheeler, 59, spent eight days being given life-saving treatment at Milton Keynes Hospital. And when he was finally discharged, a surgeon told him he was lucky to be alive.

"If I hadn't collapsed and been taken to hospital then I would have been dead within 24 hours," Mr Wheeler said.

"The consultant told me I'd had a blood clot in my leg which went up through my heart and then lodged in my lungs, stopping the flow of oxygen. "It very nearly killed me and I am still not fully recovered. But I feel very lucky to be still alive."

Dad-of-three Glenn, who lives in Hilliard Drive, Bradwell, is now claiming Dr Sathiyaseelan Chrysostom was wrong to have diagnosed arthritis.

He complained to Hilltops Medical Centre in Great Holm, whose website says: "We are committed to a high standard of care for all our patients."

Practice manager Caroline Rose wrote to him saying Dr Chrysostom, who qualified 37 years ago in Sri Lanka and joined the practice in 2004, was 'devastated' to hear he had been rushed to hospital with a pulmonary embolism.

She said of Glenn's examination by the doctor: "Though you were felling generally unwell, there were no signs suggestive of a DVT (clot in your calf

Wanting an apology: Glenn Wheeler says Hilltops Medical Centre in Great Holm should say sorry. The centre wrote to him following the incident but he is not happy with the response muscle). You had mild swelling and the signs were suggestive of an arthritic element."

Mrs Rose added: "If you would like to discuss this further, I can arrange a meeting."

But Mr Wheeler, who is demanding an apology and compensation, said: "She promised to launch an investigation, but her reply is just total rubbish. Basically the practice says nothing. There is not even an apology."

"I believe the doctor's diagnosis of arthritis was wrong."

A firm of solicitors based in Hull who specialise in medical negligence have given him advice and are now studying his case.

A spokesman said: "We cannot comment until we have spoken further to Mr Wheeler, but I can confirm we specialise in medical negligence cases."

When MK NEWS contacted Hilltops Medical Centre and explained Mr Wheeler's allegations, Mrs Rose said: "I cannot comment on any individual patient because of patient confidentiality."

She added Mr Wheeler was free to make a complaint to the practice if he was unhappy with his treatment.

We pointed out he had already done that and had made allegations about his treatment to this newspaper.

We explained we thought it was only fair to give the practice the opportunity to deny these allegations or give an explanation. Mrs Rose repeated: "I am sorry I cannot make any comment."

A MAN was arrested for drug offences after police shut down an illegal rave at the weekend.

There were 150 people at the event in a field near Buttermilk Woods, Little Brickhill, on Sunday, which is now being investigated by police.

Local residents have told MK NEWS they saw police helicopters circling the area after officers were called to the scene at 4.47am.

A 22-year-old was arrested for possession of a class B drug. A 33-year-old man was also given a fixed penalty notice and a 23-year-old man received a warning, both for possession of a class B drug.

The event was closed safely after police liaised with the organisers and a substantial amount of sound equipment was then seized by officers.

Area Commander Supt Barry Halliday said: "This was an unlicensed music event which could be heard by residents in surrounding villages."

"Police take raves and unlicensed music events extremely seriously and fully recognise the disruption they cause to rural communities, both in terms of noise and the impact on the road networks."

"We take a robust line with anyone who organises events such as these and an investigation is underway into this incident."

Bletchley bigamist's jail term cut

A MAN who got hitched in Las Vegas – despite having a wife in the UK – has had his jail term cut by a judge.

Garry Floodgate, from Bletchley, was caught after pictures of the wedding were posted on Facebook.

And the news was certainly a shock to his wife, who comes from nearby

Wellingborough, Northants.

Last month Floodgate was sentenced to 20 months in prison after admitting bigamy.

But following an appeal at Northampton Crown Court, Judge Michael Fowler has reduced the sentence to 12 weeks, which means Floodgate will be free to leave prison within the next week.

The 54-year-old claimed he thought he was divorced from his wife Rachel and previously told the court: "I made a mistake. I had no intention of breaking the law."

His Canadian bride, Sheila, has since left him as well.

Garage told to pay up over faulty car

BY MAL TATTERSALL

editor@mk-news.co.uk

A MOTORIST whose faulty car was found mysteriously vandalised just 24 hours after the garage which sold it should have refunded the purchase price is still entitled to her money, a judge has ruled.

Woburn Car Sales claimed it should no longer have to pay Carrie Ellwood the £4,550 because somebody had poured corrosive liquid over the Smart Fortwo car and made it a 'right off'.

It argued she had failed to take proper care of the seven-year-old vehicle between the date of an earlier court hearing, which ordered it to compensate her and the day they went to 'inspect' it at her home.

And its lawyer insisted any implication she might have vandalised it, he added, 'doesn't make sense'.

But District Judge Neil Hickman dismissed the appeal on Friday – just days after MK NEWS published the story – and ruled 32-year-old Carrie had taken all reasonable steps to care for it.

He said she could not be blamed for the unexplained 'act of vandalism' that happened while it was parked outside her home in Stapleley Court, Westcroft.

Carrie told him she emailed the garage the day after the money should have been paid into her account and warned she would call in bailiffs unless the money arrived by teatime.

Three hours later she received a reply saying they had inspected the car and were now asking the court to 'set aside the judgement' because it was a 'right off' and 'subject to an insurance claim'.

Carrie told the judge she had known nothing about any damage before then. When she dashed home from work to investigate she found a liquid – which she suspected was brake fluid – still wet on the car's roof and side panels.

She said she believed the damage must have been done very recently and called the police. Her car, she added, was the only one of 18 cars in the private car park behind her home which had been targeted.

Woburn Car Sales' lawyer Chris Bryden told Judge Hickman Carrie had failed in her duty 'as bailee' to take proper care of the car.

But the judge ruled the compensation must be paid in full. He also ordered Woburn Car Sales to pay Carrie another £76 to compensate her for having to take a day off work for the hearing.

Carrie said afterwards: "I am delighted with the judge's ruling and I would like to thank MK NEWS for highlighting my case."

Woburn Car Sales emailed MK NEWS at 3pm yesterday to say the 'settlement payment' had been made to Carrie.

Confusion at bus changes

CHANGES to bus times following cuts to services has left MK passengers in a state of confusion.

A series of amendments to ten key routes were introduced on Sunday, following cuts in subsidies of nearly £500,000 at a council meeting in February. But Milton Keynes Lib Dem leader, Douglas McCall, doesn't feel the changes were advertised enough.

He said: "The council made mistakes with timetable information at Kingston, Westcroft and the railway station, and just didn't tell the public early and often enough about these cuts."

A Milton Keynes Council spokesman said: "We accept there was a delay in notices being displayed at the bus stops and we have been working to rectify that."

£10m spent on busy MK routes

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

THE Government will spend £10million improving busy roads in Milton Keynes.

The money will be spent on dualling the A421 from J13 of the M1 into Milton Keynes and improving traffic flow at the Kingston roundabout.

This investment forms part of the Government's plans to resolve bottlenecks in the national road networks.

Milton Keynes Council submitted a bid for the money.

Cllr John Bint, cabinet member responsible for transport, said: "I am delighted that Milton Keynes Council has secured this money. This will make a big difference to our ability to attract growth, prosperity and jobs into Milton Keynes and will help people get into and out of Milton Keynes faster during busy periods."

City MP's Iain Stewart and Mark Lancaster have also welcomed the news.

Mr Stewart said: "Like many local motorists, I have often been caught up in congestion on the A421. This investment will reduce journey times and the financial and environmental costs of being stuck in traffic jams.

"It will be of significant benefit to the many distribution and logistics companies that are located in the south east of Milton Keynes."

Mr Lancaster added: "This is great news for the city and I'm pleased the Government has responded to our continued calls for infrastructure before expansion."

Work is set to start early next year with completion scheduled for the end of 2015.

Volunteering centre shuts prior to move

A VOLUNTEERING centre is to close – ahead of a move to new premises.

Volunteer Centre MK will be moving two members of staff from its base in Midsummer Boulevard to Community Action: MK and from July 1 that will be the go-to place for people who want to volunteer.

The group says it took the hard decision to close the centre, which started 37 years ago and has dealt with thousands of people, because of 'changing government priorities and reduced funding'.

Mike Nussbaum, chairman of trustees at Volunteer Centre MK, said: "Our charity has created a legacy which I'm pleased will continue and develop with Community Action: MK.

"Thousands of Milton Keynes residents have gained confidence, a sense of achievement and found new interests through volunteering. We've helped charities find great people in place to support volunteers."

Both organisations have been working together to ensure a smooth transition.

Briony Serginson, chairman of trustees at Community Action: MK said: "We were very sad to hear that the city would be losing such an important institution. Milton Keynes has benefited from their knowledge, skills and expertise."

"We're pleased to be able to pick up the torch to carry on and develop the work around volunteering."

Please repair potholes

I HAVE reported three times over the last few months the dangerous potholes in the road in Ardwell Lane, Greenleys, near the shops and Greenleys First School.

Nothing has been done to repair the damaged road surface.

Cars swerve to miss the potholes, which will inevitably cause an accident soon.

Small children may be involved if a car swerves near the school. A cyclist or motorcyclist could be thrown off if they ride over a deep pothole, especially at night.

I urge residents and schoolchildren's parents to put pressure on Milton Keynes Council to take action and get the road repaired as a matter of urgency. Lives may be at risk.

Turn focus to bridge

I REFER to the article in last week's MK NEWS in which you report the terrible ordeal of an 11-year-old girl being sexually assaulted on the H6 bridge near the city centre.

I am not being critical of the police in Milton Keynes as I can see they are doing a good job.

They could, however, focus on the activity on the bridge from the Xscape building to the Fishermead area over a 24 hour period.

I do not want to teach them their job but were they to use officers dressed appropriately in order to 'fit in' they would fill their notebooks in no time at all.

What a great city!

I JUST wanted to share with you a picture I snapped (on my phone) while enjoying a cycle ride round our great city.

My journey started from my home in Medbourne, via The Hub and city centre, through Campbell Park and the cricket ground, past the canal and then all the way around Willen Lake.

Then I did it all in reverse.

I particularly like this picture (it's now my laptop and iPad desktop/wallpaper) as it captures two fabulous landmarks that make up our wonderful landscape, while demonstrating the idyllic open space within close proximity of the Theatre District.

Thanks for your help

I WOULD like to say thanks to the two fellow runners who interrupted their day and kindly stopped to help us out at Furzton Lake after my husband came a cropper while running on Bank Holiday Monday.

Your moral support was most welcome, especially as my other half was in such pain.

You didn't need to stay as long as you did but you made sure that we were able to get my husband back on his feet and us on our way.

I would also like to thank the lady who provided us with much needed tissues to mop up the blood.

Although appearing not to be too serious my husband had managed to pierce his lip with a tooth when he used his face to ease the fall!

However, apart from being somewhat battered and bruised, he is now resting and is grateful for the help received.

We hope to see you out there again soon!

Raising a cup to Buffs

I WAS a nurse at Milton Keynes Hospital on Ward 18 (the men's surgical ward) about seven years ago.

We used to have to buy tea, coffee and biscuits out of our own money or cash donated to the ward.

It was nice to see people like the Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes buy it for them (Donations to needy nurses, MK NEWS, May 15).

I had to retire due to ill health and I do still miss everyone.

OCCASIONALLY I venture from the familiarity of Milton Keynes to explore the culture and icecream of foreign climes.

A little over two hours flying time from Luton will take you to Dubrovnik, a little gem nestled on the coast of the Adriatic Sea.

This Croatian city is already a popular stop off with massive cruise ships that tour the area, but it is also becoming increasingly popular with a younger crowd.

It's more than 20 years since the city was under siege by the Serb-Montenegrin forces following the break-up of Yugoslavia, and all the damage to the historic site has long since been repaired.

Now cafes line quaint streets, while street entertainers perform and culture vultures soak up the architectural glory.

Three days is more than enough time to explore the main sites, but here are my top tips to make the most of your time:

DO: Walk the city walls – it's more than a mile all the way around and there are steps and steep slopes.

DON'T: Visit in July and August – too many tourists make negotiating the narrow streets impossible.

DO: Take the cable car to the top of the mountain that overlooks Dubrovnik – the best way to view the city.

DON'T: Look forward to great shopping. There isn't any!

DO: Eat loads of icecream – just £1.20 buys you a huge waffle cone, while enjoying a coffee in the main tourist street is just £2.50.

DON'T: Miss the opportunity to rent a sea kayak and paddle around the city walls and visit nearby islands – £24 for half a day including lunch.

Ready for a close-up: Milton Keynes College students prepare to pamper mayor Brian White

Mayor gets a 'makeover'

THEY say image is everything in politics and Milton Keynes mayor Brian White got in on the act – by getting a makeover from hair and beauty students.

Cllr White was invited to the Graduate Salons, based at the Bletchley campus of Milton Keynes College.

During his session being 'beautified', he had his fingernails done, was given a back massage and also received a swanky new hair and beard style.

"I'm not one for fashion," laughed Brian. "But I had a good time and my wife barely recognised me."

"It is also a fantastic showcase for these talented students, who are the future of MK."

College principal, Dr Julie Mills, said: "The mayor leaving here looks ten years younger."

£50k to sort out 'flooded' graves

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

NEARLY £50,000 has been earmarked to solve the ongoing problem of graves being flooded at a cemetery.

As previously reported by MK NEWS, graves at the Selbourne Avenue Cemetery in Bletchley flood every time there is a lot of rain, upsetting relatives of those who are buried there.

But Milton Keynes Council revealed this week it will soon start work on fixing the problem. The improvements include providing a better quality of top soil, clearing rubbish and most importantly establishing a timescale for repairs to the drainage system.

Carmel Thomas, 73, was horrified after discovering the grave of her husband, David, was 'like a pond'.

She said: "It's about time they got something done."

"But it has caused a lot of stress and upset."

"I think there should be compensation."

Cllr Peter Geary, cabinet member responsible for communities, admitted: "There have been mistakes there in the past. But we have identified work that needs to be done."

"This shows that we have listened to residents and we hope to get the drainage done by the end of summer."

Labour councillor Nigel Long added: "At least the council is listening now and I am pleased about that."

Plans for new homes on show

RESIDENTS will be able to have their say on plans for the controversial Salden Chase housing development when they go on display this month.

The scheme, in the south west of the city, will include 1,855 houses, an employment area and a primary school. Plans will be on display at Chepstow Community Centre in Bletchley from 2-7pm on Friday, June 14.

The development has been criticised by some residents and West Bletchley Council has written to Eric Pickles, Secretary of State for Local Government, over what they call 'unfair planning policies'.

MK could now be biggest UK town

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

NEW figures out this year could show that Milton Keynes is now the biggest town in the country.

A top ten table published two years ago showed us in fifth place with just 1,000 fewer residents than Luton.

But while many urban areas are shrinking as people move into the countryside, MK has been bucking the trend.

And it is officially recognised as the fastest growing town in Europe.

With an estimated 260,000 residents, MK already dwarfs many established cities like Stoke, Derby, Southampton, Norwich, York, Oxford and Cambridge.

Statistics show the population is 13 times bigger than Ely in Cambridgeshire – and a staggering 144 times bigger than Britain's smallest city St David's, in Wales, with only 1,800 inhabitants.

Around 2,900 new homes are now being built every year, with the population increasing by an average of 4,750 people a year between 2008 and 2011. And if it keeps growing at current rates, by 2031 Milton Keynes is forecast to be the tenth biggest conurbation in the UK.

Cllr Andrew Geary, the leader of Milton Keynes Council, said: "I am not surprised so many people want to come and live here.

"Milton Keynes is a vibrant place. The geographical location is excellent, it's well designed, has lots of jobs, marvellous shopping, a great football team, a wonderful theatre and entertainment district. What's not to like?"

"Uniquely, most people living in Milton Keynes have chosen to come here. Very few were born here. It is the fastest growing town in the whole of Europe."

Bizarrely, though, despite the then government calling it 'The New City of Milton Keynes' during the 1960s, the town has twice been turned down for city status.

Cllr Geary added: "Hopefully next time it will be third time lucky. But what does it matter? The title is purely honorific. To all extents and purposes we already are a city."

Boozed off: Library and six restaurants will replace a demolished pub at the Kingston Centre

Great place to shop...and eat!

BOSSES of Milton Keynes' 36-acre Kingston Shopping Centre are hoping to turn it into a gastronomic paradise for all the family.

Six new restaurants will open by Christmas and there are also plans for stalls selling ice creams, crepes and other snacks.

Centre manager Euan Forbes said: "It will be a brand new leisure development aimed at the family with a children's play centre,

What do you think to this:
www.mkweb.co.uk

picnic area and perhaps a little craft centre. Maybe we'll even have a carousel for the kids. I want to create a real family-friendly ambience."

Already earmarked for the site of the now-demolished Kingston Tavern are Frankie & Benny's, Nando's, Chiquito, Prezzo and Caffè Nero. Negotiations are also taking place with the Giraffe chain. Mr Forbes hopes many will stay open until midnight so that the area remains lively late in the evening.

But he denied the new development – which also includes a library – would draw customers away from the central shopping area.

He said: "There is room for both. The Kingston location is second to none between two M1 junctions. It's a great place to shop – soon it will be a great place to eat too."

Council's core strategy given go-ahead

A BLUEPRINT that maps out growth in Milton Keynes for the next 13 years has been given the thumbs-up.

The Core Strategy outlines that there will be 28,000 new homes built between 2010 and 2026, further development in the south east of the city and the creation of more than 40,000 new jobs up to 2026. These are all subject to review.

Milton Keynes Council received final approval from the Planning Inspectorate last week after submitting its plans, which the public were consulted on.

The authority has said the strategy will give more certainty to developers and investors.

Cllr David Hopkins, cabinet member responsible for strategic planning, said: "This is welcome support for both where and how growth and development happens in MK over the next 13 years."

Bus pass pair hand over money to BOB

PENSIONERS who raised money for the Thames Valley and Chiltern Air Ambulance by travelling as far as they could with their bus passes have presented a cheque to the charity.

Alan Talmer and Graham Large from Shenley Lodge gave £1,230 to Rob Taylor from the Air Ambulance Trust after travelling 172 miles and ending up in York in April.

The air ambulance, also known as BOB, is MK NEWS' charity of the year.

Pair found guilty of driver's death

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A FATHER and son who ran a haulage business have been found guilty of the manslaughter of one of their drivers.

Adrian John McMurray, 54, and Adrian Paul McMurray, 36, were found guilty after one of their drivers, Stephen Kenyon, 35, from Milton Keynes, fell asleep behind the wheel and crashed his 39-tonne lorry into stationary traffic on the M1.

Mr Kenyon had been working for more than 19 hours and had driven for 13 of them. The jury at St Albans Crown Court heard the incident was an 'accident waiting to happen' because Mr Kenyon, who had debts of £10,000, was working longer than legally allowed.

The dad-of-four had been using two Tacograph charts, which record a driver's activities. It was a practice that the court heard the McMurrays 'tolerated, if not encouraged' at AJ Haulage Firm, based in Daventry.

Adrian John of Frobisher Drive, Daventry, and Adrian Paul of Ivy Road, Northampton, both pleaded not guilty to the charges but were convicted by the jury.

Reporting of the case, which finished last month, was subject to a contempt of court order because the pair faced trial for cheating the Inland Revenue and VAT. But they have now changed their pleas, been released on bail and are due to be sentenced on June 28.

Maddox, 4, dials 999 to save mum

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A FOUR-YEAR-OLD has been praised for saving his mother's life by calling 999.

When Maddox Shearer couldn't wake his mum up, he rang for an ambulance and calmly gave out his home address. And when the paramedics arrived, he even opened the door for them.

Maddox was at home with his mother and two-year-old sister while his father was away at work.

But when he spotted problems with his mum he quickly took action.

Maddox's mother, Hollie Ashton, was full of praise for her 'brave' boy.

She said: "With my poor health, I taught Maddox from an early age what to do in case of an emergency when 'mummy was poorly'."

"He stayed calm and acted like a brave and responsible boy and got me the medical help I desperately needed – I couldn't be more proud of him."

Vicky Holliday, South Central Ambulance Service's

Little star: Maddox Shearer with his mum Hollie Ashton and Brian Wagstaff from the SCAS

(SCAS) area manager for Milton Keynes, said: "Maddox is a fine example of what any child should do faced with a medical emergency."

"He is an outstanding example to others of what to do when you call 999 for an ambulance and, as a special thank you for a job well done, we have given him his own toy ambulance."

Laura Patrick, an SCAS senior emergency call taker who spoke with Maddox over the phone, was also full of praise for the youngster.

She said: "I was really impressed with Maddox, who not only managed to give me quite a difficult address but was very calm."

"He's a very clever boy with very proud parents I'm sure."

Police search for 'dangerous' man

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

POLICE are still searching for one of Milton Keynes' 'most wanted individuals' who allegedly attacked a woman with a dog chain.

In March, Thames Valley Police issued a photograph of Darren Levy, 31, who is wanted in relation to two assaults.

On Friday, September 7 last year a man had an argument with a woman and a man outside Tesco Express in Walnut Tree.

He then followed them into Studley Knapp, Walnut Tree, where he assaulted the man before attacking the woman with the dog chain.

When Levy's picture was released he was described by Milton Keynes Local Police Area Commander Barry Halliday as a 'dangerous individual'.

This week Supt Halliday told MK NEWS Levy is still a danger and classed him as one of Milton Keynes' 'most wanted individuals'.

"We are still looking to track down and question Darren Levy in connection with the two assaults, one of which involved using a dog chain as a weapon," he said.

"This man is a dangerous individual, who is on a recall to prison. When he is arrested he will be immediately returned to prison and also charged with assault.

"He is one of our most wanted individuals currently in Milton Keynes and is still out there somewhere.

"We believe he could be in Milton Keynes, Northants or the West Midlands but we require the help of the public which can lead us to tracing him.

"Anyone who provides any intelligence will be dealt with in the strictest of confidence. "I would advise the public not to approach this man, but if anyone sees him or knows of his whereabouts, please call us as soon as possible."

Anyone who sees Levy should call 999, or if they have information about his whereabouts Thames Valley Police's 24-hour enquiry centre on 101.

Alternatively they can contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111, or at crimestoppers-uk.org

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

ADVERTISEMENT

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Film star said to me 'I'm going to kill you'

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGER has starred alongside his favourite actor in the West End.

Ryan Elliott from Bletchley appeared in Macbeth with James McAvoy – famous for his roles in Atonement and X-Men: First Class. Ryan played the part of MacDuff's son in the production at London's Trafalgar Studios between February and April.

The 14-year-old met McAvoy on his first day and was welcomed by the sight of his hero marching up to him with a sword and saying: 'Hi, I am going to be killing you'.

Speaking about the experience, Ryan said: "Being in Macbeth was one of the most amazing experiences of my life.

"It was such an honour working alongside people such as James McAvoy, Allison McKenzie and many other lovely people, some of which I am still in touch with. I learnt so much from the experience and it has really improved me as an actor.

"It felt like a dream and it only hit me on my last night when we were warming up in the auditorium and I just stopped for a moment, had a look around and realised that for the past three months I had been performing on the West End.

"And it was with James McAvoy, who has been my favourite actor for many years, and I will never forget that."

Ryan auditioned for the part through Stagecoach, which is celebrating its 25th anniversary and holds drama, dance and singing classes in Stony Stratford and Woburn Sands.

Unforgettable: Ryan Elliott with film star James McAvoy who he has been performing alongside in Macbeth

Scheme pushes local trade drive

BY JESSICA DUNCAN

jessica.duncan@mk-news.co.uk

A CAMPAIGN was launched this week to encourage residents to Keep Trade Local.

The Thames Valley region of the Federation of Small Businesses (FSB) is throwing its weight behind local and independent companies to show how important they are to the community.

And yesterday it launched its Keep Trade Local initiative, which is being back by MK NEWS and challenges people to only use these businesses between July 29 and August 4.

At the end of the week, participants can go online and tell the FSB how much they have spent and give their feedback.

There will also be a totaliser showing how much money people have managed to put back into the community in just one week. Anyone who signs up will receive a free cotton shopping bag to take all their goodies home in.

To encourage people to take part, MK NEWS editor

Cally Jenkins and city MP Iain Stewart are using local traders for two weeks until Friday, June 14 to show how much they can buy locally.

Mr Stewart said: "I think the challenge is an excellent initiative to help promote the wide range of locally produced and sourced products that are available."

Heart victims 'not

Reporter JAMES AVERILL headed along to the Milton Keynes Community Cardiac Group and found a tight-knit family with a lot of heart

VISITING Hinton Hall in Blechley, you could be forgiven for missing the building hidden behind the trees on the main road.

But is a building that is of vital importance to some 400 people who are members of the Milton Keynes Community Cardiac Group (MKCCG).

The group was started by Gill Robinson after she was given £25 and a bike to set up a group to help people who had suffered heart problems.

Nearly a quarter of a decade later the group is still there – and Gill still has the bike!

"I had five members that first evening," Gill recalls.

"I envisaged it lasting eight weeks, but we're still going!"

The group is a big attraction to people who have heart problems. Not only does it have a gym, there are specific fitness sessions tailor-made so as not to wear them out.

There is also a dedicated team of qualified volunteers and nurses who check on patients and form the group's clinical team.

Speaking to members of the group, it's clear that its importance is not just about keeping fit physically, but also repairing the mental damage that having a heart attack can cause.

Andrew Halsey is 43 years old and suffered a heart attack while working out at a gym in 2011 – proof that heart problems can still affect the fit and healthy.

"I needed a triple heart bypass," Andrew told MK NEWS. "Recovering mentally was the hardest part. My thought process was that if I can have a heart attack doing something so simple, then how on earth am I ever going to lift a box again?"

"That's quite frightening,

Work out: Members are put through their paces at fitness sessions

but thanks to the group I'm not afraid any more."

Andrew attends the sessions with 56-year-old Tony Pateman who discovered his heart problem while away in India, which was initially diagnosed as indigestion.

"How could we ever go to any other gym," he said.

"I enjoy working out with other people who have shared the same experiences. It does get a bit competitive with Andrew, but it helps us.

"It's also fantastic socially, it feels like a family."

Patients help to raise standards

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

PATIENTS have helped draw up new standards and commitments for patient care at Milton Keynes Hospital.

Last autumn, people receiving treatment had the opportunity to meet nurses, doctors, managers and other healthcare staff to tell them about their real life experiences as part of the hospital's We Care programme.

They told staff what was good about their stay and what services could be improved.

One patient, Sheila, said: "I was pleased and surprised to be asked to talk about my experiences."

"I am pleased to see what we have said being taken forward."

The main feedback given by patients was they wanted to feel valued and cared for as individuals. They also wanted to feel understood, informed and involved as well as safe.

Patients and staff were able to find out more about the

Lending a hand: Hospital staff Leigh Kendal, Alan Brooks, Marc Yerrell and Denise Malder do a 'trolley dash' to give out details standards and commitments from displays at several points around the hospital.

Staff also took information to patients on wards and in departments as part of a 'trolley dash'.

Joe Harrison, the hospital's chief executive, said the views of patients were incredibly helpful.

He added: "Staff are committed to providing safe, compassionate care to patients, but we know this does not happen consistently.

"The We Care programme is part of our ongoing efforts to encourage, support and enable us to be at our best for each other and patients every day."

"I want to thank patients who took the time to tell us what it's like to be treated at our hospital."

"Their contribution has been invaluable."

Clearing up: Volunteers at The Parks Trust launching the anti-litter campaign in Campbell Park

£250k 'wasted' on park rubbish

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

RESIDENTS are being urged to show how much they Love MK by joining in the fight against park litter louts.

As previously reported, The Parks Trust has launched an anti-rubbish campaign.

But three months on it is still a mounting problem with £250,000 a year spent clearing it up and now the trust is urging residents to stop dropping litter. More than 180 bin bags of rubbish are being left in the city's parks every week, creating a massive annual total of more than 9,360 bags.

David Foster, the trust's chief executive, said: "We love people having a great time in our parks – but we want people to care for them too."

"We spend a great deal of money collecting litter, around £250,000 each year, and we'd much rather spend this money on providing exciting events, more flowers and trees, working with schools or providing more facilities in the parks."

Offering help to young diabetics

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A GROUP is holding a talk on the help and support that is available to young people who suffer from type 1 diabetes.

MK Kids with Diabetes was started 11 years ago by parents to organise days out for young people who have the condition, which results from the body's failure to produce enough insulin.

Chloe Scott, 15, was diagnosed with type 1 diabetes when she was just two years old and has to test her blood four times a day.

She said: "It feels like the end of the world when you get diagnosed and you think 'why me?'"

"But it isn't the end of the world and when other kids joined you realised you weren't the only one."

"The group has given me a lot of confidence. Without it I would have hid it away."

Confident: Chloe Scott with her insulin pump. She says MK Kids with Diabetes has helped her come to terms with her condition

The group wants more people to join as it believes it can help families and children in the early stages of diagnosis.

Nigel Hammond, whose daughter Poppy has diabetes, will be giving a talk on the support the group can offer at the Peartree Centre on Tuesday at 7.45pm.

He said: "It obviously has a huge impact on your life. I'm going to talk about what the child will go through and the changes it will make to their lifestyle."

The talk is taking place as part of Diabetes Week, which runs from Sunday until Saturday, June 15.

Ted's Gang gets mayor's support

Mayor Brian White with Ted Jakeman

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A CHARITY says it will make the most of the Mayor of Milton Keynes raising money for it during his year in office.

Ted's Gang raises money for medical research into Shwachman Diamond Syndrome (SDS), an inherited genetic condition that affects digestion, growth, immunity, bone marrow, teeth and skeletal development.

The group, based in Stony Stratford, is named after six-year-old Ted Jakeman, who was diagnosed with SDS when he was just 22 months old.

Only 60 people in the UK have the condition and a third of those go on to develop AML, the worst kind of leukaemia.

Ted's mum, Abi Davey, said councillor Brian White's decision to back the group would help make more people aware of the condition.

"All the money we raise goes towards medical research," she said.

"We've donated about £50,000 over the last three years, but we hope being named one of the mayor's charities will be a real boost, and it's a nice validation."

The other charity being supported by Cllr White is the International Campaign to Ban Landmines.

He also announced his Mayor's Monday project this week, which will give charities the chance to 'bid' for an evening with him.

He will attend 12 events with a number of local business people to raise money for the charity. Place a bid by emailing steven@mkfla.co.uk

Don't run out of time to join race

Before and after: Christina Tribble, who has lost 11 stone since she started running, will be doing the half marathon

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THERE is still time for you to enter the NSPCC Milton Keynes Half Marathon.

Entries for the 13.1-mile run, which is being backed by MK NEWS, are still being accepted.

One runner who is taking on the challenge is 41-year-old Christina Tribble, who has lost more than 11 stone since she started running regularly.

"I entered the half marathon initially as I have lost over 11 stone since I took up running and was lucky enough to get a place and run the London Marathon this year," said Christina.

"I decided that I needed another challenge after that to keep me focused and keep me running."

"As a resident of Milton Keynes I wanted something local and after searching for local races this was what I came up with.

"It is important to raise funds for the NSPCC because it does in protecting and supporting children who are in need."

"As I work for another charity which supports people with learning disabilities, this seemed the perfect race."

"I'm most looking forward to the camaraderie with the other runners and also seeing a different part of Milton Keynes as the route takes in some places I haven't been."

Since being started 14 years ago, the event has raised £448,000 for NSPCC and this year organisers hope to break the £500,000 mark.

All the money raised at the run on Sunday, July 7 will go to the ChildLine Schools Service, which launched in November.

To apply for the run, visit www.nspcc.org.uk/miltonkeyneshalfmarathon. Entry fees cost between £20 and £25.

History
Over the past 20 years I have suffered from an under active Thyroid and my weight has yo-yoed. I had tried every diet going until my doctor suggested SureSlim. I was really impressed with what I read on the website, but then after speaking to a consultant I had no hesitation that this was going to be the new me!

Solution
SureSlim tested my blood and used the results of the tests together with my medical history to prepare my very own tailored eating plan.

Not only was my plan individual to me but the team of consultants who supported and encouraged me during my private one to one consultations were great. SureSlim has not only worked for me but it has totally changed the way I think about food. No one can believe how much weight I have lost or how much more energy I have. I feel great! SureSlim has totally changed my life.

A dad is someone who wants to catch you before you fall but instead picks you up, brushes you off, and lets you try again.
A dad is someone who wants to keep you from making mistakes but instead lets you find your own way, even though his heart breaks in silence when you get hurt.

Girls mean business at new event

A BUSINESS event especially for women will soon arrive in Milton Keynes.

The Girls Mean Business Roadshow, taking place on Wednesday, June 12 will feature a host of speakers, a glam and pamper area, a knowledge zone and 'bra bins' where participants can donate their old bras to raise money for the Breast Cancer Campaign.

One of the keynote speakers will be Milton Keynes businesswoman Sarah Setterfield.

Sarah, who works as a personal branding expert at Impact 4 Success, will share her secrets on how female entrepreneurs can use branding to grow their business.

She will also talk about how she built her own company on the back of establishing a personal brand.

Sarah will be joined by experts including bestselling author and TV and radio broadcaster, Tina Bettison, and business coach Ian Waddelow.

The event has been organised by Claire Mitchell from The Girls Mean Business and Lise Hardiman of The Really Good Events Company.

Claire said: "Our roadshow is aimed at women who are running their business while juggling childcare, dealing with not having enough hours in the day and still being a wife and mother.

"They will be able to meet like-minded women business owners, listen to inspirational speakers and take part in workshops and business clinics."

The roadshow takes place at MKCC from 9.30am-5pm.

Tickets cost £95 and can be booked by visiting www.thegirlsmeanbiztour.com

Think bike: Ali Ekram with one of the Volvo models that has the new detection device, praised for considering cyclists' safety

Cyclists safer thanks to Volvo's technology

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

CYCLISTS in Milton Keynes are now safer than ever – thanks to pioneering new technology from a car manufacturer.

Volvo's world-first Cyclist Detection with Full Auto Brake won the Safety Award at the 2013 Fleet World Honours, in a ceremony held at The Royal Automobile Club in Pall Mall.

The technology detects if a cyclist has swerved in front of a car and automatically applies the brakes.

Volvo says this will help to bring down accidents in Milton Keynes, reducing the risk of injuries and costly repairs. The system is now fully available on all Volvo cars sold at Marshall Milton Keynes, based in Chippenham Drive, Kingston.

Ali Ekram, dealer principal at Marshall Milton Keynes, said: "Winning a Fleet World Honours award is a significant achievement so we're really pleased to have won this award.

"At Volvo, we consider all road users and we anticipate Cyclist Detection will particularly help those drivers based in inner cities to help reduce the likelihood of costly accidents and more importantly, keep more of our passengers and cyclists safe."

The Fleet World Honours are presented annually to motor manufacturers, service companies and individuals who have achieved the highest possible level of excellence in their sector.

Steve Moody, the editor of Fleet World, added to the praise for Volvo and its consideration for cyclists as well as motorists.

He said: "Volvo continues to push safety system technology forward, making much of it standard across the range.

"The latest innovation is cyclist detection with full auto brake, illustrating that the firm is fully focussed on not just protecting the occupants of its cars, but the wider world too."

Courier firm shortlisted for industry gong

A COURIER firm could get the equivalent of its very own gold medal – after being nominated for a prestigious award for its work during the London Olympics.

Datapace Couriers, based at Hayfield Business Park, is one of 115 APC Overnight depots that have been collectively shortlisted for the Motor Transport Network of the Year award.

The judges looked at APC Overnight's performance during 2012, including its Olympic performance, which saw Datapace Couriers liaising with colleagues across the network to ensure on-time deliveries into the nation's capital, despite mass transport restrictions

"We have a firm commitment to offering fast and efficient on-time delivery, with a friendly, local service, no matter the circumstance," said APC Overnight chief executive Syed Ziaullah.

"2012 in particular was a fantastic year for the network, which saw the depots going above and beyond to ensure local companies' deliveries arrived on time, whether going to central London during the Olympics or the far extremities of the British Isles."

Holiday Inn refurbishment completed

HOLIDAY Inn Milton Keynes East in Newport Pagnell has announced the completion of its refurbishment programme that cost just under £1million and has transformed the hotel into a relaxing and stylish base for its business and leisure guests.

The enhancement of all the hotel's facilities, including its bedrooms, restaurant, conference rooms and public areas, was finished in April.

All bedrooms have had new carpets, curtains and enhanced lighting fitted.

They have also had comfortable working spaces and new flat screen 32-inch televisions installed.

The hotel has improved its wedding facilities with a new bridal suite, with a four poster bed, and its large Carrington Suite, making the hotel a great place to celebrate your big day in Milton Keynes.

It has also improved its environmental plans by introducing new keycard readers that mean the lights are only used when one is inserted.

General manager Marwan Hemchaoui said: "The team and I are looking forward to welcoming our guests to the hotel, to experience the new enhanced facilities all contributing to making their stay as comfortable and enjoyable as possible.

"We're extremely confident that our investment into the property and our continued high levels of service will ensure a highly satisfying Holiday Inn experience for all our guests."

McDonald's is 'biggest yet'

BY JAMES AVERILL

james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW McDonald's in Great Brickhill is the biggest in the area – and has created 100 new jobs.

The two-storey restaurant in Galley Lane is one of the first of its kind in the UK and includes 130 indoor seats, 45 external patio seats and 28 car parking spaces.

It has also used recycled equipment from some of the many McDonald's restaurants that were part of the Olympic Village during last summer's games.

And at such a size, McDonald's has confirmed that its latest building is the biggest in the area.

Franchisee Ken Tomkins said: "I am thrilled to have opened this new restaurant in Milton Keynes and to have created 100 new full and part-time jobs in the area.

"Having started working in McDonald's restaurants at the age of 21, and progressed to become a franchisee, this is a very proud moment for me."

The 100 new jobs have been created to fulfil the company's commitment to opening 24 hours a day.

Those employed at the restaurant will have access to training and development programmes, as well as the opportunity to gain nationally recognised qualifications.

Lovin' it: Ken Tomkins at the McDonald's in Great Brickhill that uses recycled equipment from restaurants based in the Olympic Village

These range from adult certificates in maths and English, through to a foundation degree in managing business operations.

And Ken is already getting on famously with his new staff since the restaurant opened on Wednesday last week.

"The restaurant has been busy since it opened," he said. "I would like to thank my staff for their continued hard work to give our customers the best possible experience."

The building also boasts comfortable seating, panoramic views and free Wi-Fi for customers to surf the web.

The company says the new restaurant represents a substantial investment in Milton Keynes.

The Great Brickhill restaurant is the seventh McDonald's outlet in the city.

Carters Yard is full for the first time in years

FOR the first time in six years Carters Yard estate in Kiln Farm industrial park is letting all its 24 small business units and has sold the estate to a new landlord.

Graham Young, a partner of Louch Shacklock and Partners, a commercial property agent in Milton Keynes, said: "A combination of reinvestment in the property, careful pricing and flexible lease terms were all contributory factors; but most significantly, our success at Carters Yard is the result of increased demand for business space from entrepreneurs in a broad range of light industrial, technology and distribution sectors."

Louch Shacklock and Partners biggest sale was at Foxhunter Drive, Linford Wood, to EGR Europe, the European headquarters and distribution centre for an Australian owned car industry supplier, which has been based in MK for more than ten years.

Further evidence of new investment coming into the MK property sector can be found at two established multi-let estates at Linford Wood Business Centre and Cromwell Business Centre.

Mr Young said: "Looking ahead to the rest of this year and into 2014, we still have a wide range of office, industrial and retail premises available. Our prediction is that this will lead to the first new speculative development of commercial property since 2007. We are looking forward to the positive trend continuing."

Enjoy the carnival capers in West Bletchley

THIS year's West Bletchley Carnival is set to be the biggest and best yet.

A whole host of events will take place at the Saturday celebrations, but the real stars of the show will be our furry animal friends. Floating animals will take centre stage, in a demonstration that is being kept under wraps, but is sure to make a fantastic spectacle.

There will also be zorbing with Harry and his Hamster friends, both on water and on land. And running around in a giant inflatable ball is just as fun for adults as it is for children, and it counts towards exercise!

The many costumes on offer will be full of colour, with many being designed by children from city primary schools.

The carnival will start with zumba and entertainment at Melrose from 10am, with the parade leaving two hours later.

The fun will continue once the procession arrives in Rickley Park, until 5pm. There will be stalls, live music, a fairground and lots of activities to enjoy at the event, being supported by MK LIFE.

So don't miss out this weekend – if there's one thing the British know how to do well, it's throw a carnival!

touchingsnaps

A NEW art exhibition at MK Gallery will examine breast cancer.

Touch of Pink: Close Up, opens on Friday until the end of June.

Backed by MK Arts for Health, it is the work of photographers Elizabeth Beston and Wendy Grant.

The photographers focus on seven women and one man who share their experiences of having breast cancer.

It reveals how different people cope with a diagnosis and the places they turn to for comfort. The exhibition shares both painful and funny moments from their journeys, practical advice and raises awareness of the Touch of Pink Appeal - a fundraising drive for Milton Keynes Hospital's breast unit.

MK Gallery is open Tuesday-Friday noon-8pm, Saturday 11am-8pm and Sunday 11am-5pm. Admission is free.

thehangover

IF THE Hangover was an all-night party you never want to forget, and the second a disappointing dinner in your favourite restaurant – then The Hangover 3 is a humourless pub-chain meal with the in-laws.

The 'Wolfpack' go out with a whimper instead of a howl – as it fails to even reach the heights of the sub-par sequel.

It's definitely not an awful movie, but the ingenuity of the original film has long since faded – with only Zach Galifianakis' Alan saving it from being a real damp squib.

The threesome end up in Las Vegas (again) via Tijuana in Mexico, as they fight against the clock to retrieve some loot to save kidnapped pal Doug.

Bar a couple of laugh-out-loud moments, the trilogy ends without any real bite.

Thanks for the memories from the original – but this is one hangover you should sleep off.

nigelpassey

THE Nigel Passey Band hail from Leeds – and claim their sound will just about please everyone.

The original line-up met at Leeds College of Music and the group's influences include Jon McLaughlin, The Goo Goo Dolls and Mumford and Sons.

They recently released new single Something Beautiful from the LP of the same name and will also showcase songs from their debut The Lights, The Sound & The People.

The Nigel Passey Band are playing at The Watershed in Newport Pagnell. This Friday's gig starts at 9pm and entry costs £4 on the door.

albumreview

IT'S been a long time since Josh Homme released material with Queens of the Stone Age.

Since 2007's Era Vulgaris, Homme has released material with Them Crooked Vulture, and produced albums by Arctic Monkeys.

But now he has returned to front the band with which he is most known and the end result is Like Clockwork. Lead single My God Is the Sun is classic QOTSA, with a thumping bassline from new member Michael Shuman. Other highlights include gritty rocker If I Had A Tail and I Sat By The Ocean, which offers a more upbeat Homme than on psychedelic opener Keep Your Eyes Peeled.

There are also guest appearances from Alex Turner, Dave Grohl and even Scissor Sisters' Jake Shears.

Like Clockwork keeps QOTSA at the top and was worth the long wait.

childgruffalo

'THE gruffalo said that no gruffalo should ever set foot in the deep dark wood...'

But the mischievous gruffalo's child failed to heed her father's advice and on a snowy evening she tiptoes out and into the woods.

The big question is whether the big bad mouse does indeed exist, but you'll have to watch the show to find out!

Following The Gruffalo's fabulous success on the West End, the Tall Stories Theatre Company brings Julia Donaldson and Alex Scheffler's magical sequel to Milton Keynes Theatre.

The musical adaptation is perfect entertainment for children and will end up capturing the hearts of all the adults too in the end.

Performances take place on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and tickets cost £13.90. Visit www.atgtickets.com for more details.

thegalleons

THE Galleons are a six-piece indie band from Brighton.

They are coming back to The Stables for a second time, and on this occasion they will be releasing their second album.

While they formed on the south coast, singer songwriter Ben Brockett comes from nearby Bedford.

"I used to see gigs at The Stables as a kid and think how great it would be to play there one day," he said.

"I've seen some of my musical heroes perform there, so the decision to come back home to launch our second album was a no brainer! The venue is definitely one of the best in the UK, our last visit sold out and was one of the best gigs we've played."

To see if they can better their last visit, head down there at 8.45pm on Saturday. Tickets cost £10 in advance and can be bought online at www.stables.org.uk

There will also be awards for the best cars from different eras, and if you attend you will even get a vote in the Public's Choice category. Entry to Sunday's event is free, but there will be a series of collections held for charities.

30% more forests

Did you know that forests in Europe, which provide wood for making into paper and many other widely used materials, are 30% larger than in 1950? In fact they're increasing by 1.5 million football pitches every year.*

If you love reading your favourite newspaper, isn't it good to know that it's made from natural and renewable wood.

The New Nissan Leaf

The new Nissan LEAF

100% ELECTRIC. 100 IMPROVEMENTS

The world's best selling all-electric car has been made even more impressive...and it's available to order now from Glyn Hopkin Nissan.

Engineers and designers have made over 100 improvements to the groundbreaking first generation Nissan LEAF to create a model that's even more appealing, practical and affordable than ever before.

The British-built second generation LEAF can travel further than its predecessor – 124 miles compared to 109 miles – and is quicker to charge too. It can be charged using a regular domestic socket for as little as £2 and in as little as four hours when using a specialist charging point.

What's more, the new LEAF, which will arrive in UK showrooms in June, now comes in three distinct trim levels for great choice, while a new battery leasing option makes financing more flexible and an enhanced battery warranty gives added peace of mind.

All of this means a life without expensive trips to the filling station, costly car tax or hefty London Congestion Charge payments could be a reality for many more motorists.

Stuart Hodson, Brand Director at Glyn Hopkin Nissan said: "If you drive less than 100 miles a day, which most motorists do, then the LEAF is an incredibly practical and super-economical car to own."

"And there's no compromise in comfort or performance. The LEAF's a brilliant car to drive and has more creature comforts and little luxuries than you may expect."

"I'd urge anyone in the market for a new car to come to their nearest Glyn Hopkin dealership to take one for a test drive and do the sums before committing themselves to another conventionally-powered car."

As with its predecessor, the second generation LEAF benefits from the Government's £5,000 plug-in grant – a one-off payment that automatically brings down the purchase price.

The well-equipped entry level Visia LEAF is available from just £20,990 RRP while even the most expensive model – the range-topping Tekna LEAF, which features a state-of-the-art BOSE sound system, 17-inch alloys and LED headlamps – is available from just £25,490 RRP.

But cost of ownership could be reduced further with the introduction of the new battery leasing scheme which enables motorists to bring down the initial purchase price of the car and then lease its battery over a fixed term with convenient monthly payments. The separate battery lease payment ranges from just £70 per month depending on the length of the contract and mileage covered.

Whichever route buyers choose to LEAF ownership, peace of mind is assured with Nissan's enhanced battery warranty. The warranty on the previous-generation LEAF's battery covered it against defective materials or workmanship for five years. The extended warranty also protects against capacity loss, with a commitment to repair or replace a battery which falls short of what might reasonably be expected.

For more information about the second generation Nissan LEAF and for details of your nearest Glyn Hopkin Nissan dealership, contact their Group Head Office on 01708 737999 or visit www.GlynHopkin.com

Company or lease car returns ...

Refurbishing your fleet vehicles can save you big time. The cost of repairs from D & A Auto Group is a fraction of what you could very well end up paying in penalties for returning damaged vehicles to your leasing agent / fleet provider. Our approach to fleet repair work is simple - restore vehicles to meet the guidelines laid out in your Fleet Wear and Tear documentation so you avoid penalty fees.

TENNIS

YOUNGSTERS in the city are being encouraged to pick up a racket during National Mini Tennis Week.

The Milton Keynes, Stony Stratford and Olney clubs are offering free sessions to try and get children aged between three and ten into the sport.

"With smaller courts, nets and rackets and lower bouncing balls, mini tennis offers the perfect introduction to the sport," said Nina Bridge, Tennis Development Officer for Milton Keynes.

"Tennis is a family sport and mini tennis provides a great way for children to get involved and it encourages families to play together in a fun and social environment."

The session at MK will take place between 10am and 1pm on Saturday, June 15 and Stony Stratford will host its class between 2pm and 4pm on the same day.

Olney's session will be on Sunday, June 16 with a 10am start. For more information visit www.ltaminitennis.co.uk.

RUGBY LEAGUE

MILTON Keynes Wolves begin a double header with local rivals Bedford Tigers this evening.

The city outfit visit Putnoe Woods for an East Cup clash which was rearranged on Saturday, and will make the same journey again this Saturday for a league contest in the East Premier division.

Both games promise to be a tough ask for Wolves who have been well beaten in both of their matches against St Ives Roosters and North Herts Crusaders this season.

In contrast, Bedford have a perfect record with three victories from their three matches, including a victory over St Ives who saw off the Wolves 90-12.

RUGBY UNION

OLNEY U11s graced the famous Twickenham turf after being crowned as regional winners of the Land Rover Premiership Rugby Cup.

The youngsters saw off opponents from Old Northamptonians in the final after negotiating their way through a series of other matches, and as such took part in a 'parade of champions' at half-time of the Aviva Premiership final between Leicester Tigers and Northampton Saints.

They also got to meet England's World Cup winning captain Martin Johnson.

Player Joe Brock was thrilled after the experience in front of more than 80,000 rugby fans.

"I can't believe I went to Twickenham and met Martin Johnson," he said. "It was really exciting to go on the pitch and I now really want to play there when I'm older."

We don't mention Sam too much these days

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

DONS Director of Youth Mike Dove has joked that the club does not talk about Sam Baldock much any more – as so many more promising youngsters are coming through from the academy.

Local hero Baldock was one of the first success stories to be manufactured by the Dons' production line and he was hailed as 'one of our own' by fans before his move to West Ham United in the summer of 2011.

The striker now finds himself back in League One after his current club Bristol City were relegated from the Championship, putting himself in line for an emotional return to stadiummk in the new season.

If he does feature against his old club he will likely do so against several players who have followed his path from the youth ranks to the Dons first team.

"We seem to have stopped talking about Sam Baldock now," Dove told MK SPORT.

"We used to talk about him a lot as he was our first homegrown player."

"Now we have Dan Powell and Adam Chicks established, and George Baldock is coming through."

"Tom Flanagan had a great year and won a League Two winner's medal with Gillingham, and then there are teenagers who have made it into the first team like Dele Alli, Brendan Galloway and Giorgio Rasulo."

"Behind them there are 100 odd boys in the academy and a majority of those are from around this area."

"There will be some more names coming through."

Kevin Danso, who joined England capped duo Alli and Rasulo in gaining international recognition when he was selected for Austria's U16 squad, is a player to watch, as is Hugo Logan who travelled on the first-team coach to Colchester last season at the age of just 14.

Dove admits that the inevitable consequence of a successful academy is interest in players from top clubs, and scouts are now regular visitors to all youth team games.

In November 2011, Dons lost 14-year-old starlet Seyi Ojo to Liverpool for a reported six figure sum and more players could follow him out if the reputation of the youth set-up continues to blossom.

"There's a lot of competition between the big clubs to get the top young players," said Dove.

"I think the scouts who come to watch us are all on first name terms, there are six or seven at every U16 and U18 game."

"There was a change of rules and now the bigger clubs are allowed to come down and scout the lower aged players."

"It's worked out fine, we have a system in place and they all wear ID, where as in the past they have tried to slip in and it's been undercover."

"Four years ago someone was hiding in a bush at Woughton and we had to remove them."

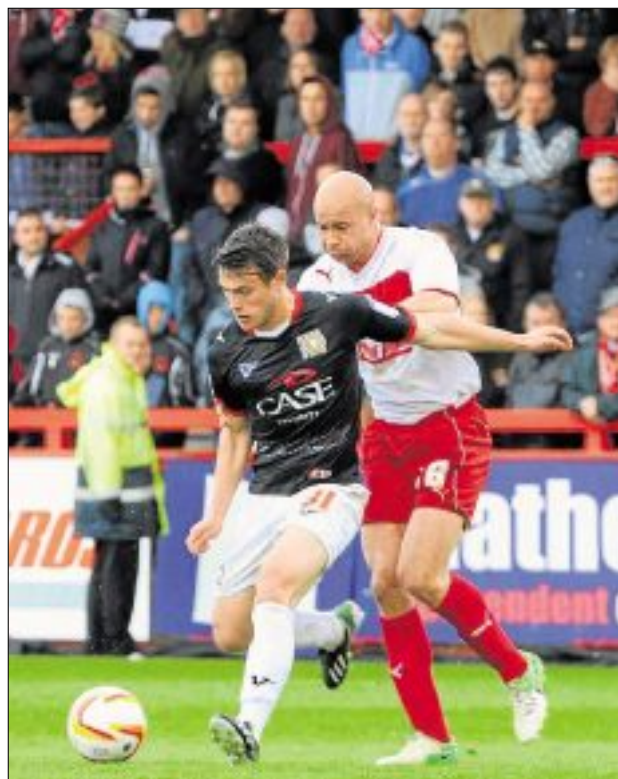

"Agents and representatives are more difficult to manage as it's an open facility, that's been our biggest headache I think rather than other clubs."

The academy's reputation also means that the big clubs want to play the Dons youngsters, with Chelsea's U15 side claiming a 4-1 win at stadiummk last Tuesday in front of more than 1,000 supporters.

"Last month Manchester United were playing from U9 to U13 and they couldn't provide an U14, and the first club they contacted was us," said Dove.

"I think clubs want to play us as we give them a real game, and we are a different proposition."

"It's the success we're getting at

COMING THROUGH: Giorgio Rasulo is just one of the players to emerge from MK Dons' flourishing academy the minute, people want to play us.

"The momentum is going really well for us. It's through years of hard work and recruiting really."

Dan Micciche, the head of coaching from the U9 team through to the U16s, stressed the importance of games like the Chelsea one, which was the team's sixth stadium fixture in a hectic two weeks which also included a fixture at the FA's new base of St George's Park.

"I was pleased because they got an experience out of it, which was the main thing," he said. "At times they were a match for Chelsea."

CRICKET

Stony narrowly avoid defeat as final pair hold on for draw

A LOOK at the local cricket action from the weekend of June 1/2.

Northamptonshire Cricket League Premier
STONY Stratford narrowly avoided defeat against Peterborough Town and instead picked up a losing draw after just about hanging on to their last wicket.

Peterborough opted to bat and were bowled out for 199, with Stony's Graham Simpson the best of their bowlers with 4/55.

In response Nick Allen made exactly 50 but the rest of the Stony batting line-up struggled as they slipped to 129/9 to just about escape with a share of the spoils.

Edward Tate's 14 was their next highest score as a final partnership of Alex Strong and Steve Bellew survived.

Cherwell League

THERE was a 44 run defeat for Great Brickhill who went down to Leighton Buzzard Town in Division One.

Garth Davson took 3/34 in Leighton's total of 203/8 which in the end proved to be enough. Davson was also a hit with the bat for Great Brickhill, smashing 84, but he was not ably supported and his side were skittled for 159.

In Division Two, Bletchley Town were beaten by three wickets by Cropredy.

Matt Shepherd made 43 and Jude Ramanadanpulle struck 37 in Bletchley's 144/9, and Cropredy just about snuck home as they finished on 147/7.

A score of 46 not out by Mitchel Darville helped them along as Bletchley slipped to defeat.

Elsewhere in Division Two there was a losing draw for Wolverton Town who squared off with Bledlow Village.

Batting first, Bledlow made their way to 231/7 and Wolverton could only respond to the target with 139/6 in reply, Aky Hussain finishing not out on 37.

Four Counties League

NORTH Crawley remain on top of Division One after they beat Elstow by one wicket.

Elstow's 153/8 was in vain as the leaders edged over the line with 154/9.

Milton Keynes CC beat New City MK by six wickets in a low scoring contest at the MK Village Pavilion.

New City were bowled out for just 46 with Viral Shah's 15 the only total in double figures.

Joe Fairbrother took 3/11 and Daniel Ramsell 3/8 and MK easily negotiated their way to 50/4 despite Shah's 3/18.

Olney Town claimed a winning draw against Eaton Bray after they finished on 204/8, opener Marcus Bates falling one short of a half-century on 49.

In response Eaton's Paul Harris was run out for 83 as they batted to 181/7.

Milton Keynes City enjoyed a three wicket win over Cranfield University who were bowled out for 117 in their 40 overs.

City lost regular wickets in their chase but got over the line on 120/7.

There was a defeat for Newport Pagnell who went down by eight wickets to second in the table Thurleigh.

Paul Braddy made 35 in Newport's 116 all out and despite Daniel Broad's 4/27, Thurleigh chased successfully to 118/8.

In Division Two, Old Bradwell defeated Eggington Forresters by four wickets.

There were figures of 4/33 for Daimo Kemp as Eggington were bowled out for 159, and Ross Poulter top scored with 40 for Old Bradwell as they made it home with overs to spare.

Aspley Guise were beaten by Biddenham by 21 runs despite Chris Beales Jr's 5/14 in Biddenham's 140 all out. In reply Aspley were bowled out for 119.

A century from Sam Howe helped North Crawley's second XI to a 59 run win over Open University in Division Three.

Howe was unbeaten on 133 as North Crawley declared on 273/2 – Harmit Bahra also contributing with 70 not out.

OU batted well in reply but were eventually bowled out for 214.

Shenley Church End picked up a six wicket victory at Stewkley Vicarage, with Richard Fletcher making 83 as they chased down 153/8.

Coventry move leads to pair leaving club

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

LIGHTNING'S year of exile in Coventry has led to two members of the squad departing the club.

Both Chris Wiggins and Nicky Chinn are leaving as they are unable to commit to life to the north of Milton Keynes.

A major refurbishment at Lightning's Planet Ice home necessitates the switch to the West Midlands for the 2013/14 season, and although some players have got on board with the change it seemed inevitable that there would be some casualties.

Both players – known affectionately as Chinny and Wiggy – have spent just one season with the club after moving from fellow English Premier League side Basingstoke Bison last summer.

"We always knew that moving to Coventry would be a stretch for both Chinny and Wiggy, and we respect and understand that it doesn't work with their professional lives," said Lightning coach Nick Poole.

"In a short time they've become real favourites with the fans and I know they'll be missed.

"I've played against Chinny for many years and it was a pleasure to play alongside him as he's one of the true characters of British ice hockey.

"Wiggy is a one-off in Britain, combining size and strength with his skill level.

"It's a real shame that he suffered a few injuries and was never able to regain full fitness over the second half of the season.

"But he's young and has many seasons left - who knows what the future will bring when we are back playing in Milton Keynes?

"I know our supporters will make both of the guys feel very welcome when we face them next season."

Chinn, a Welsh born forward, spoke of his sadness at having to leave.

"It's only due to the fact that the travel will be too much next year that I'm not returning to Lightning," he said.

"I had an absolutely wonderful experience at MK and wish I'd come years ago. The club and the fans are a class act and I've enjoyed my time there immensely."

DEPARTURES: Nick Poole has lost Nicky Chinn and Chris Wiggins.

Wiggins, another frontman who takes on the role of enforcer, also said that his time with Lightning had been one of his most enjoyable seasons in ice hockey.

"Unfortunately due to a change in circumstances, both with the team and personally, I wouldn't be able to give the level of commitment that the team not only requires but deserves," he said.

Meanwhile, 21-year-old defenceman Ross Green has signed on for the year in Coventry.

After coming through Milton Keynes' junior ice hockey system he has impressed in the senior ranks.

"We only narrowly missed out on making the play off final in April, but that just makes you hungrier for success," said Green.

"With the team that is being put together I think we can have that success."

Poole said that Green was a 'vital' part of the Lightning defence.

"We will once again be looking to be one of the stingiest teams in the goals against department," he said.

"I'm thrilled to be bringing Ross back for another year.

"He is a very strong skater, has a great skill set and is able to control the tempo of a game when he is on top form. I think at times Ross forgets how good he is and can be."

ATHLETICS

Season's best for third Greg

GREG Rutherford had to settle for third at the Diamond League meeting in Eugene, despite registering a season's best on the west coast of the United States.

The city's Olympic long jump champion registered 8.22m in Oregon but was beaten by Russian Aleksandr Menkov who managed 8.39m and Brazilian Mauro Da Silva who also recorded 8.22m but saw off Rutherford on the countback rule.

Rutherford, who was also third at Shanghai's Diamond League meeting last month, saw Eugene as a chance lost.

"It was a missed opportunity to jump really big," he said.

"I'm not happy but it was a great competition and it's slowly coming together."

Marshall Milton Keynes Athletic Club had three other athletes in international competition with Craig Pickering running 10.47s in his heat in Geneva before slowing in the A final where he picked up fifth spot in 10.77s.

Pickering is combining athletics with his attempts to become a Winter Olympian for Great Britain in the bobsleigh at Sochi 2014.

Meanwhile, Chris Clarke withdrew from the 100m B Final after qualifying with 10.59s, but he was also fourth in the 200m A final in a time of 20.87s.

Completing the club's trio in Switzerland was Joey Duck who improved on her time of 12.04s in her 100m heat to take third in the B Final in a time of 11.97s. Duck also won the B final of the 200m in a time of 24.05s.

In a busy club weekend, match two of the Youth Development League saw the U20 and U17 squads take full advantage of home track advantage to win and extend their lead at the top. At Cheltenham the U13/15 teams had a much tougher contest and finished fifth.

The highlight of the day for the M20 team was a league record and personal best of 14.37m in the triple jump for Chuko Cribb and the F15 4x100m club record was also broken by Rachel Oderinde, Lizzie Adam, Grace Linnett and Ebony Carr who won in 50.8s.

In Bedford at the England Athletics Combined Events and Open Throws meeting, Devon Byrne was fifth in the heptathlon with a personal best of 4771 points, and at the same meeting Freddie Curtis registered 57.18m in the javelin.

The East Midlands Grand Prix series moved to Corby with Matthew Clarke leading the way for Milton Keynes in 11th place, thanks to a time of 28m, 22s.

Kim Lowden was the first female runner home in a time of 34m exactly which handed her 89th spot.

MOTORSPORT

Jeff's hat-trick

MILTON Keynes racer Jeff Wyatt drove his way to an impressive treble in the latest round of the GT Cup Championship at Brands Hatch.

Wyatt won his class in all three races at the Kent circuit in his Geoff Steel Racing prepared BMW M3 E46 and was delighted with his efforts.

"As race weekends go, that was a special one," said Wyatt.

"Everything just came together, the set up, me, everything. It was not without drama though, because as well as the usual cut and thrust of sprint races, the team also had to repair a broken clutch between the two 25 minute races.

"With not much time to work with, the gearbox, exhaust system and rear diffuser had to come off."

The trio of wins has put Wyatt, who races in the GTA section of the four class multi-marquee championship, at the top of his standings and third in the overall table.

As well as the three race wins, he also helped himself to two pole positions and two fastest laps.

The next round of the series takes place at Oulton Park in Cheshire on July 12.

Lowe confirms that he hopes for a move away

BY DAN PALMER

dan.palmer@mk-news.co.uk

FURTHER doubt has been cast over the future of Dons striker Ryan Lowe after the forward confirmed that he wants to move back north.

Manager Karl Robinson had earlier revealed to MK SPORT that the striker saw his base as being in the north of the country and this has now been reiterated by Lowe himself who looks set to exit the club.

"I've made no secret of the fact that I would like to move back up north to be closer to my family," said Lowe in an interview with the Bury Times.

Robinson told this newspaper that he hopes to hang on to Lowe, who scored 12 times in his first season at Dons after joining from Sheffield Wednesday last summer.

The 34-year-old still has a year left on his contract but if his heart is elsewhere Dons may opt to sell.

Tranmere Rovers boss Ronnie Moore is known to be an admirer of the Liverpool native and Lowe's former club Bury, who were relegated to League Two this year, are also in line to grab his signature.

"I can't say at this point, but if Bury come calling to me, or my agent or the football club, I would be more than happy to speak with them," said Lowe.

Meanwhile, Dons are still waiting to see if skipper Dean Lewington, defender Adam Chicksen and goalkeeper Ian McLoughlin will sign new contracts offered to them.

The trio have had deals on the table for a number of days but continue to mull over their options.

Robinson has been spending time on holiday in Spain.

English National Championships to be hosted at city's brand new arena

MILTON Keynes will host the English National Badminton Championships from next year.

The tournament, which showcases the best badminton talent in the country, will be the first major sporting event to be held at the arena which is adjacent to stadiummk.

Badminton England have long spoken of their desire to bring tournaments to the home of their headquarters, and recently secured planning approval for a new £22 million National Arena at The National Bowl.

For the last nine years Manchester has hosted the Championships.

"The time was right to move," said Badminton England Chief Executive Adrian Christy.

"We were inundated with towns and cities around the country wanting to host the Championships but in the end we were keen to bring the nationals to our home city.

"Sport matters to Milton Keynes and the support English badminton receives here is extraordinary.

"We are therefore delighted that we can recognise that support by bringing a major event here."

MK Dons chairman Pete Winkelman also welcomed the decision to play the tournament in the arena which is attached to his stadium.

"We are incredibly excited to be welcoming the English National Badminton Championships to the Arena at stadiummk, which will be the first major sporting event to be held in the venue," he said.

"Hopefully this event can help attract a whole new audience to the sport ahead of Badminton England's move into their new facilities in 2015."
